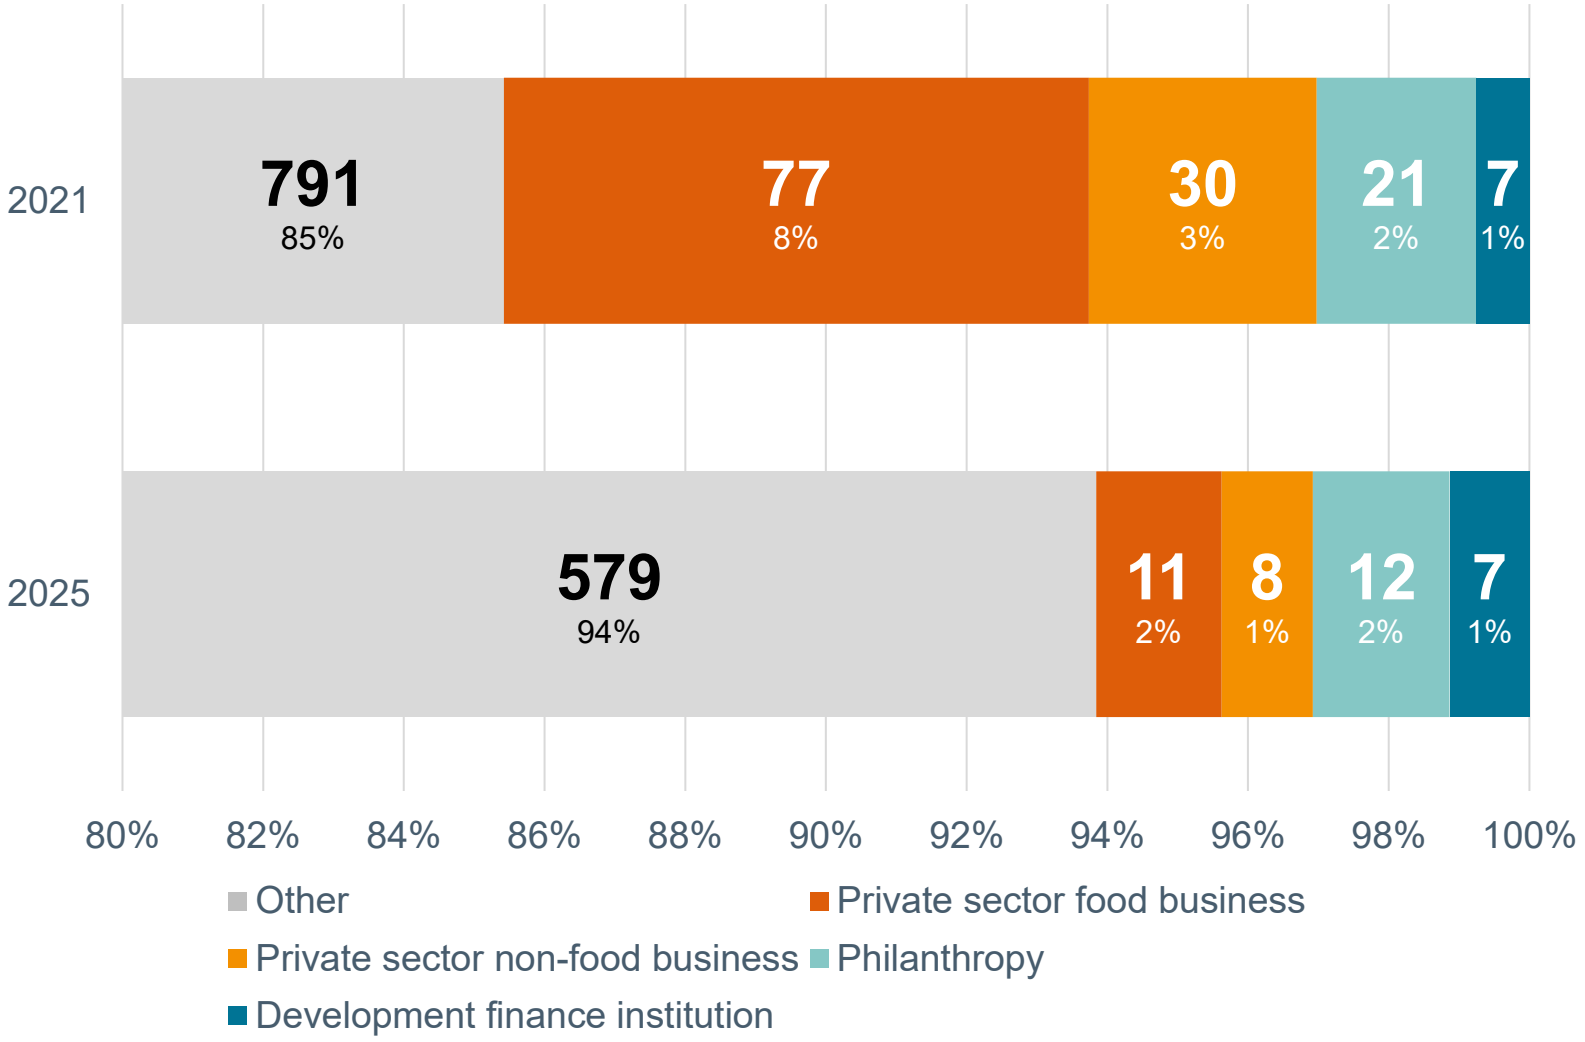
NAF commitments from “investors”



Improve nutritious food security and revenue by tackling post-harvest loss - Inyene Agro Processing Factory Limited (Nigeria)

Increase awareness on food waste and raise donations through the WFP ShareTheMeal app – EDENRED (France)

Reduce the micronutrient gap, reaching 1b people by 2030 – dsm-Firmenich (Switzerland)

High “SMARTness” in Tokyo and Paris commitments

"S" Specific
"M" Measurable
"A" Achievable
"R" Relevant
"T" Time-bound

Private sector food businesses	78% for 2021; 80% for 2025
Private sector non-food businesses	53% for 2021; 50% for 2025
Philanthropies	100% for 2021; 100% for 2025
Development finance institutions	86% for 2021; 86% for 2025

The GNR’s SMARTness Methodology: https://globalnutritionreport.org/resources/naf/smartness-of-nutrition-commitments/assessing-smartness-nutrition-commitments/

Mechanisms like the NAF support transparency

Private sector food businesses

78% reported on (2024); 52% of reports showing positive progress.

Private sector non-food businesses

60% reported on (2024); 33% of reports showing positive progress.

Philanthropies

100% reported on (2024); 81% of reports showing positive progress.

Development finance institutions

71% reported on (2024); 60% of reports showing positive progress.

Report progress on registered commitments by 30 June:

naf@globalnutritionreport.org

The GNR's Progress Assessment Methodology: https://globalnutritionreport.org/resources/naf/naf-commitment-tracking/naf-commitment-progress-reporting-assessment-methodology/